The first receipts of new salt Irish mackerel arrived here on the Teutonic Monday from Liverpool. There were 59 barrels and they were for Thomas Woodward & Son of New York. They were reported fine fish, of good color, counting 280 to 300 to a barrel and are being held at $15 per barrel.

The steamer Prince Rupert, at St. John, N. B. Sunday afternoon from Halifax, reports passing through schools of mackerel for 100 miles between Iron Bound and Sambro.

FINE TRIPS.

Schs. Corona and Edward A. Rich Have Big Fares.

Sch. Corona, Capt. Augustus Peterson, arrived from Green Bank yesterday with a fine fare of 40,000 pounds of halibut and 15,000 pounds of salt cod.

Sch. Edward A. Rich, Capt. James Goodwin, arrived Monday evening from a salt cod drifting trip with one of the finest fares of the season, 60,000 pounds of salt cod.

Ashore and Floated.

Sch. Ellen C. Burke, Capt. Nickerson, from Boston for the Magdalene Islands for bait, ran ashore on Monday of last week at Sand Point while entering the Strait of Canso, there being no buoy out to mark the danger zone, and the captain being below at the time. She was going at a good rate of speed at the time and ran up hard and fast. That night the Fred L. M. Paint went to her assistance and succeeded in pulling her off.

The Sea Trout.

The gamest of salt water fish after the striped bass is the weakfish, or sea trout. The sport of angling for them is generally enhanced because, feeding, as they generally do, near the surface, it is possible to fish for them with light tackle. While they have been caught weighing upward of twenty pounds, a six or ten pounder is a good size, and the average will only run from one to two and a half. There is never any doubt when a weakfish bites. He does not nibble around the hook, but takes the bait at one fair swoop and then starts off with it like a limited express with time to make up. He is a shy fish, and the man who uses a small line, light leaders and shells to his hook and keeps quiet while fishing is the one who is apt to have the best luck.

Dory Picked Up.

A dory marked Paragon was picked up at Fire Island light Sunday, containing a mackerel net, two lanterns and a pair of oars. Some old dories of the halibut Paragon were sold to the mackerel netters Pet and F. W. Homans to take on their trips out south. The Homans was at New York all right on Monday. It is thought that the dory parted its painter and went adrift from one of these crafts.

Rips Cod Sale.

The fare of Rips cod of sch Edward A. Rich sold to Davis Bros. at the last sale, $4.50 per hundred weight for large and $3.75 for medium.
